“I should cite tenor Marcel d’Entremont as a first among equals for his commanding voice and near perfect diction.”

Paula Citron, Ludwig van Toronto

“As Edgardo, tenor Marcel d’Entremont gave the most polished and stylistic performance of the evening.”

Matthew Timmermans, Opera Canada

Canadian tenor Marcel d’Entremont is celebrated for his powerful voice and sincere stage presence, captivating audiences across Canada, the U.S., Mexico, and Europe. A recipient of the prestigious Wirth Vocal Prize, Marcel has also been awarded first prizes at the Atlantic Young Artist Competition and the National Music Festival, where he won the Grand Award as overall best performer. He has performed solo recitals broadcast nationally by CBC Radio and made history as Rodolfo in La bohème with Against the Grain Theatre- the first Canadian live-streamed professional opera, featured on CBC Gem.

Marcel has appeared with esteemed ensembles like the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, Orchestre classique de Montréal, and the Opéra Royal de Versailles. He is also the creator of A World Transformed, an interdisciplinary production blending music, dance, and spoken word, presented in partnership with Echo Chamber, and performed to critical acclaim across Canada.
